

Notes:

Wrocław, the capital of Lower Silesia - one of the largest regions in Poland - is an important cultural, science and industrial centre. The town situated in the south-western part of Poland has over 1000 year old history (in the Roman times there was a track going through the town from southern Europe to the Baltic Sea; in the year 1000 Wrocław became a seat of bishopric). Nowadays, the town has about 630 000 inhabitants and approx. 140 000 students and covers the area of nearly 300 sqk. There are 26 universities and colleges (among other, the Wrocław University and the K. Lipiński Academy of Music), nearly 400 schools of various types (including 9 music schools and 2 schools of art), National Music Forum, over 70 librares, over a dozen theatres (including Opera and Operetta), almost 20 museums and over 20 art galleries. Wrocław is a city of 12 islands and over a hundred bridges.

Wrocław has a direct train connections with many European cities, and it also has plane connections via Brussels, Frankfurt, London, Vienna or Warsaw with many cities all over the world.

The detailed plan of classes for each day and of rehearsals for the concerts will be displayed at the Hotel, the Music & Literature Club and at the School and at the Philharmonic Hall starting from the second day of the Course.

Undoubtedly, the most important advantage of the Courses organised in Wroclaw by the Liszt Society is the possibility to meet the prominent artistic, pedagogic and pianistic personalities.

*The Professors of our Courses were:
Halina Czerny-Stefańska, Lee Kum Sing,
Andrzej Jasiński, Istvan Lantos, Victor Merzhanov, Boris Petrushansky and Alexei Orlovetsky.*

Their individual personal preferences often lead to different solutions of given technical or interpretational problems. Nevertheless, they share absolutely the highest level of professionalism, great commitment and vast pedagogic experience.

So, I warmly encourage all participants to combine active participation with passive one by attending the most number of other participants' classes.

I wish you to experience many fascinating moments and witness satisfying artistic events.

Juliusz Adamowski

3. PRACTICE ROOMS

At your disposal, there are 14 grand-pianos and 3 upright-pianos in 17 practice rooms at the Secondary Music School and a grand-piano in the Philharmonic Hall. You should arrange your practicing time yourself on the time-schedule exposed at the school entrance hall. Every day practice time is from 8.00 to 21.30, but the time from 8.00 to 9.30 in the morning is reserved for piano-tuning. Then it might be necessary to change rooms for some agreed time. You have unlimited practicing time. On the days of concerts the school might be closed earlier. To enter the School (and the hotel at night) you might need to use intercom.

Practice-rooms: 09 - 011 on the underground level assembly hall and 2 on the ground floor (opposite the reception)
4 - 6 on the ground floor (entrance via 1st floor)
15 - 17 1st floor
22, 23 2nd floor
25, 26 2nd floor (via 1st floor)
32 - 34 3rd floor

The grandpianos in the Music and Literature Club as well as in the Philharmonic Concert Hall are EXCLUDED from practicing.

One hour before your lesson you may use the grandpiano in the philharmonic changing room. Any failures of the instruments should be announced to the Course Director or to Prof. Maria Serafin.

4. HOTEL ACCOMMODATION

Any changes are acceptable exclusively if the hotel reception's permission is given and the translator is informed. All extra fees ought to be paid by the participants at the reception desk. That includes also all external calls and other services not covered by the Course organisers.

5. MEALS

Your meals start with supper on 17 Aug. and end with breakfast on 29 Aug. Breakfasts and suppers for the course participants are served at the Savoy Hotel's Buffet (on 1st floor, next to the reception desk). Lunch at the Restaurant "Galicja" (ul. Marszałka Józefa Piłsudskiego 66 – opposite the Music Theatre CAPITOL) about 150 m from the Hotel Savoy).
